hello...

Failures and Forgiveness

In this third message on “We Are Family,” I want to talk about one of the most important dynamics in family life – dealing with failures. We all fail from time to time. The Bible calls it sin when it comes to failing to obey God’s Word. Not every failure in our home is a sin, but it does need to be dealt with in a biblical fashion or it will corrode the family’s unity and relationships.

Wednesday Family Nights for the Fall

We are having great crowds on Wednesday nights with our adults, students, and children. Come and be a part of a discipleship class. Bring your children and students to their activities. Take part in the family fellowship meal that begins at 5pm. The food is delicious, and the cost is only $4.50 for adults and $2.50 for children.

Special Guest Speaker October 3 – Dr. Calvin Pearson

Calvin and I have known each other when I was pastor of FBC Texas City and he was pastor of Bay Area Baptist. He went on to be a professor of preaching at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and then a teaching pastor at Crossroads Baptist in the Woodlands. I know you will be blessed as he brings a message from God’s Word while Dianna and I are out of town.

Generous Life Series Begins October 10

Our God is a God of generosity. He lavishes His blessings on you and me every day. As His children, we should have a heart of generosity, as well. I believe this series will help us grow in our likeness of Christ having a generous spirit.
